The Medical Interpreting Kaleidoscope:
A Conversation of Perspectives

CEUs: 0.6 PS CEUs

Description:

As interpreters serve as a conduit for communication in healthcare settings, how interpreters respond to experiences may affect performance on the job and, ultimately, patients' clinical experiences.

During this interactive workshop, Corey Axelrod – 2axend's founder and CEO – will explore key stakeholder perspectives in various situations and equip interpreters with tools to provide services that are responsive to, and respectful of, Deaf clients/patients, family members, and healthcare providers' preferences and communication access needs.

Presenter – Corey Axelrod:

Corey Axelrod, MBA, is a passionate advocate and social entrepreneur committed to creating equitable experiences for Deaf and Hard of Hearing individuals. As founder and CEO of 2axend, Corey is sought after as a consultant, thought leader, and trainer to organizations in educational, health care, language services, manufacturing and telecommunication sectors on issues of communication accessibility, inclusive organizational design, unconscious bias, risk management, and Deaf awareness and cultural competency.

Since 2015, Corey has served as the president of the Illinois Association of the Deaf (IAD). In this role, he spearheads IAD's strategic initiatives and partnerships to ensure the Illinois Deaf and Hard of Hearing community's collective interests are represented among Illinois' policy makers. He also currently sits on the Northwest Community Hospital's Patient and Family Advisory Council. Corey is a recent past-chair of the National Association of the Deaf (NAD) Outreach Committee, having been appointed by the NAD Board of Directors. He also served as a memeber of the Village of Arlington Heights' Commission for Citizens with Disabilities, Illinois School for the Deaf Advisory Council and Chicago Hearing Society Advisory Council. In recognition of his contributions to local and national civic advocacy the NAD awarded Corey with the Knights of Flying Fingers Award in 2016.
